

NEVADA STATE JOURNAL

SUNDAY, AUGUST 16, 1896.

L. P. FISHER, NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING AGENT, 216 Commercial Street, San Francisco, is our authorized agent. This paper is kept on file in his office.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM J. BRYAN,
OF NEBRASKA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ARTHUR SEWALL,
OF MAINE.

FOR BRYAN AND SEWALL.

Hon. H. F. Bartine, who advocated the cause of silver from a Republican standpoint for many years, believing that the party was in reality as well as professedly for free coinage, has proved his sincerity by abandoning the party when the party abandoned the cause of bimetallism. There is now on our table a copy of the National Bimetallicist of August 5, 1896, which has the following at the head of its editorial columns:

"H. F. Bartine, Editor."
For President,
WILLIAM J. BRYAN
of Nebraska.

For Vice President,
ARTHUR SEWALL
of Maine.

"No crown of thorns, No cross of gold."

Here is an old soldier, a man who served in the war of the Union; an old Republican who was twice elected to Congress in Nevada, now advocating the election of Bryan and Sewall. Does not this prove that Mr. Bartine places the prosperity of the country above party and is he not much more entitled to the respect of the people than the place hunters, who three months ago, in convention in Virginia City, declared for free coinage and now declare against it because the trusts and gold gamblers did so in the National Convention? Mr. Bartine, like Senator Teller and thousands of other Republicans, severed his connection with the party when it declared against silver, and to-day advocates the election of W. J. Bryan, because he stands for free coinage, which Mr. Bartine as a Republican declared in the House of Representatives as the paramount issue.

COMPARATIVE PRODUCTIVE POWER OF WORKMEN.

Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister at Washington, has been questioned regarding the comparative productive power of an American and a Mexican workman, and gives out the following:

The actual production during a given working time is in Mexico far less than in the United States or even in Europe. The day's work of a Mexican laborer very likely represents only one-fourth of what is accomplished during the same time by a laborer in the United States. A Mexican laborer working from ten to eleven hours a day, for instance, accomplishes less work or produces less, than European or American laborer in nine hours, and in some instances the disproportion is as great as one to five. I have been assured that a Mexican bricklayer in eleven hours' work does not lay more than 500 bricks, while a bricklayer in the United States lays 2,500 in nine hours; and that a Mexican weaver cannot attend to more than two looms. Under such conditions the high wages of $8 a day paid in the United States are no higher than the wages of 50 cents paid in Mexico, so far as product of labor is concerned."

It is shown that the wages of American workmen should be from three to five times as large as the laborers and mechanics of Mexico receive, as their productive power is on that ratio.

SENSIBLE SILVER MEN.

The Populists, Democrats and Free Silver Republicans of Washington have at last effected a fusion. Each of the three parties is represented on the ticket. In 1892 the vote of the State stood 29,802 for Cleveland, 36,460 for Harrison, 19,165 for Weaver and 2,542 for Bidwell. Now there is a heavy defection from the Republicans, and with the Populists and Democrats united the electoral vote of the State is practically assured to Bryan.

This is a much more sensible course for silver men to pursue than to split up into factions and give the gold standard men a chance to carry the State. Hero in Nevada there are two Democratic factions, Populists and Silver men all claiming to be for Bryan, but some of whom are playing into the hands of Mr. Hanna, nibbling at his golden bait as it were, and each talking of nominating an electoral ticket. The true advocates of free coinage are determined to unite, however, and they comprise a large majority of the voters.

WHICH KIND?

The Gazette says Mr. J. F. Condon of Verdi still holds to Republican principles. It does not say whether those principles are the declaration of the Republican Convention held in Virginia City May 9, 1896, for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, or the declaration of the Republican Convention at St. Louis, June 16, 1896, which declared against free coinage and in favor of the gold standard.

Our neighbor should bear in mind that there are two kinds of Republicans in Nevada now—those who adhere to the goal.

to the State platform adopted in Virginia City last May and those who repudiate that platform and endorse that adopted at St. Louis last June—in other words, silver or consistent Republicans, and gold or inconsistent Republicans.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

The Western Hotel at Chico, California, a large frame building, was burned yesterday morning; loss $6,000.

The Democrats, silver Republicans and Populists ratified their agreement yesterday and nominated the same ticket.

Chairman Jones of the Democratic National Committee announced that headquarters will be established at Chicago with branches at Washington and New York.

There were five heavy failures in Chicago yesterday, and the Comptroller of the Currency was informed that the National Bank of San Angelo, Texas, capital stock $100,000, closed its doors. The Republican campaign was opened at Columbus, Ohio, yesterday. Manufacturing establishments were closed to allow employees to attend. Senators Sherman and Foraker were the speakers.

Train wreckers threw the Chesapeake & Ohio express, bound from Washington to Cincinnati, off the track yesterday. The only person injured was Baggage Master Hoffman, who was thrown from his chair.

In a fight between strikers and non-union men at Brown's Hoisting Works near Cleveland, Ohio, three men were shot and a fourth badly injured. One of the men was a spectator, two non-union men and one a striker.

George W. Cornwall, the oldest engineer on the Coast Division of the Southern Pacific, died last Wednesday, and his funeral was attended by three women, each claiming to be his widow. One lived in San Jose and two in San Francisco.

The steamer Oceanic of the Lehigh Valley Company's fleet collided with the propeller William Chisholm in New Channel on Lake St. Clair, and both sank. One was loaded with coal and the other with iron ore. The crew were rescued.

A collision at Fitch Hill, Ohio, yesterday on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad between the west-bound passenger and freight train resulted in the death of Engineer Camp and Fireman Hoffman, and the scalding of Engineer Johnson and Fireman Thompson.

John Maxwell went through insolvency recently at Napa, California, and in listing his property omitted a note for $1,600. Maxwell was charged with perjury and though the Notary testified that Maxwell signed the paper in his absence and was not sworn the jury found him guilty of perjury.

Lightning struck the 36,000 barrel oil tank at Kemper, three miles from Lima, Ohio, yesterday, and the fire communicated to three other tanks. The property is owned by the Standard Oil Company and three hundred men were employed to throw up embankments to prevent the oil from spreading.

Judge Dorn of Monterey county, California, filed a decision declaring the Grand Jury now in session at Hollister an illegal body because it is not composed of citizens selected from different townships in proportion to the number of voters in each township. The legality of the Grand Jury was questioned by ex-Treasurer Montgomery against whom the jury found six indictments for malfeasance in office.

For over Fifty Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. It disturbed at night and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums reduces Inflammation and gives Tone and Energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty cents a bottle. "Old by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for" Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

VIAVI.

Viavi is more of a food than a medicine. I should be glad to have those who do not understand its use, call and get a Health Book free and read the home testimonials. Viavi sales in 1895 exceeded those in 1894 by half a million dollars. Mrs. B. E. Hunter, Fourth Street.

CROCKETT'S TOUT.

An aunt of S. R. Crockett, the Scotch writer, has lived in Springfield, O., for 83 years. She says that among his boyish traits which excited comment was his willingness to make any sacrifice for books. Every penny was saved with that object in view. As he grew older he would spend days upon the hills studying the landscape he could portray with his pen and writing to gain greater grace and facility.

A LUCKY MAN.

"I tell you I'm in big luck." "I'm glad to hear it." "Yes. The insurance examiners passed me in good health two months ago, and now the doctor tells me I've got a incurable disease. Ain't that lucky?"—London Tit-Bits.

A SILENCE.

Grace—Why do you start? Frank—Did I understand you to say that your father is living? Grace—Physically, I am not. Frank—Oh, all right, I was afraid it was something serious.—British Globe.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

Little Girl—Let's play we're married and keep house. Little Boy—Let's don't. My teacher says it is wrong to fight.—Pearson's Weekly.

SYRUP OF FIGS.

Gladness Comes With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a derangement of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note where you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commanded to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

The prophets have found that Bryan's luck is abundantly pillared with the magic 7. "W. J. Bryan" contains 7 letters, the Convention met on the 7th day of the 7th month, and his room at the Clifton House was No. 7. His son is 7 years old. To these indications of happy results add the word "elected," and the chain of "7's" reaches to the goal.

A BRYAN CLUB

Organized Last Evening at the Court-house.

At the meeting held at the Court-house last evening, in the absence of Chairman Judge Cheney, H. L. Fish was elected Temporary Chairman and John L. Pugh Secretary.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

E. R. Dodge read the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization.

T. V. Julien moved that the report be adopted, and the motion was carried unanimously.

ORGANIZATION.

I. The name of this club shall be the Bryan Club.

II. Any citizen of Nevada twenty-one years of age or older, who shall subscribe to the following obligation shall be considered a member of this club: "I am in favor of William J. Bryan for President of the United States and will vote for electors pledged to him."

III. The purposes of this club shall be to promote the election of William J. Bryan for President of the United States; to educate the community upon the political issues of the day and to extend courtesies to Democratic, Populist and Silver party speakers during the campaign.

IV. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, first and second Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Sergeant-at-Arms and an executive committee of five. The duties of the foregoing shall be such as usually devolve upon such officers and executive committee.

PLEDGE.

"I am in favor of William J. Bryan for President of the United States and will vote for electors pledged to him."

Notwithstanding the report indis- tinguishedly circulated that the club would not be permitted to use the Court-house there was a fair attendance and over sixty persons signed the roll.

On motion the following persons were appointed a committee to select permanent officers and report at the next meeting: C. A. Norcross, E. R. Dodge, B. C. Shearer, Jno. B. Williams and H. L. Fish.

Hon. Thos. Wren, the war horse of Eastern Nevada, being present was called upon to address the meeting, and was greeted with applause.

Mr. Wren ridiculed the idea of dividing the silver vote of Nevada. He referred to the two Democratic factions, Populists and Silver party, all for Bryan, splitting hair about electors.

He did not care whether they were all Democrats, Populists, Silver, Republicans or what so they are for Bryan.

He said the Silver party, which is the dominant party, will doubtless nominate a Democrat, a Populist and a Silver man at Elko, and they will be elected whether the leaders of the favorite such nominations or not.

He advised union of all silver men.

This year every citizen is a leader and is going to vote for Bryan.

In Elko county the Democrats are going to support the electors that will be nominated by the Silver party, and if the pie counter men of Western Nevada make a move to jeopardize their election, they will not get a bite of the pie. William Jennings Bryan understands the situation and those who expect recognition when he is inaugurated, as he certainly will be, if he re-lives, must place no obstacle in the way of election.

Mr. Wren spoke of the Silver and Populists conventions at St. Louis and said that more independence was exhibited in the Populist convention than in any gathering he ever saw. They went there opposed to Bryan, but nominated him in spite of some of the leaders. They were earnest, sincere men and did what they believed to be for the best interests of the country.

He referred to the gold Republicans, some of whom were probably sincere, but the majority were actuated by sordid motives. The party is controlled by plutocrats and when it gets a good thrashing next November it will lettere people have the say next time. He said the Silver party will not have accomplished its mission until Bryan is elected and silver is restored, and he hoped that men of all parties will join in accomplishing that great financial reform.

On motion the following Finance Committee was appointed: E. R.

Dodge, J. M. Pugh, T. V. Julien, C. A.

Norcross and F. M. Lee.

The meeting adjourned to meet at Ryland Hall next Saturday evening.

TWO LIVES SAVED.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction

City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr.

King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life.

Mr. Thos. Eggers, 129 Florida St. San Franisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such re-medicines of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this remedy for coughs and colds. Free trial bot-ties at Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

TROUT HOOKED IN QUEER PLACES.

Mr. Kellogg's Live Right with a Fish Caught by the Dorsal Fin.The story which E. Lincoln Kellogg tells in Outing about a five pound trout hooked foul makes trout-fishermen think of fish they have hooked in other places than the mouth.Mr. Kellogg went a-fishing in early spring in a stream near the foot of the Olympic mountain, not far from Puget sound. The water was cold and icy, being melted snow mostly, and the fish did not bite so freely as they would have done had it been later, when the sun had warmed things up. He had fished all the morning, but without success, although his companion had caught a 10 inch fish."We fished till noon," he says, "using big and little flies, bright and dark ones, black, blue and brown, red, yellow and green ones, but to no avail.
After luncheon we separated. Jack went upstream and I down. Pretty soon I came to a favorable pool. The river came dashing down over a long, steep ridge into a broad, boiling pool, where a big eddy up on side. Cast here and there for a few moments. Then there was a heavy splash out in the foam, and my reel began to buzz. I scrambled to the shore and raced down the stream, entirely unable to stop the fish's mad rush. He came up the eddy, then I could stop him. Then I got him into my sight, and I saw that I'd hooked him foul, and saw also how it was that his rushes had been so powerful. The hook had caught in his dorsal fin."When Mr. Kellogg managed to work the fish into a little cove from which he was able to throw it up, not having any landing net or gaff, he found that it weighed five pounds.Fishermen know how a fish hooked in the tail will pull, more especially in a current. They know further that no fish makes so good a fight as one hooked in the tail flesh, where the hook will not readily pull out. More than one trout fisherman in the Adirondacks has struck a fish and instantly thought it was a monster—a four or even six pounder, judging from the way it pulled, but at last, on getting the net under the fish, has found it to be a little fellow of a pound or less hooked in the tail.The place where fishermen like to hook their trout is down in the corner of the mouth where the two lips meet.
This is a tough place, and a hook fastened there is better than one fastened anywhere else for hold fast qualities.
Big trout are seldom or never taken when hooked in the lip, though one hooked in the tongue fights in up in full struggle. But in either of these places the trout does not make the fight a tail heeling one does.

The Spread of Superstition.

Some say in Wales that if a mare's shoe is nailed to the lintel of the door no wife will ever enter the home, and that if one of them happens to go into a newly built house, pluck a nail from the threshold by a member of the family will prevent her leaving. Somebody has said that two straws laid across on the threshold will serve the purpose quite effectively.A neighbor's wife heard one of them muttering something to herself and believed that she was saying the Lord's Prayer backward. Somebody has also said that they can all tell when Pharaoh and his chariot are in the depths of the Red Sea if each man must be an expert, but that the Israelites must be skilled in arithmetic, algebra, Hebrew, Greek, Latin and all the original (gvreditid) tongues before he can compass this mighty feat.The belief in such things is rapidly gaining ground nowadays. It has already crossed the new bridge at Cul-gwynn mill and has crept up from Carn Ighl, past Morfa, along the seashore as far as Llech-y-drybod. It is also making its way eastward, having by this time almost reached that famous old stone called Arthur's Quoit, and, if its progress is not checked, it will soon arrive at the Seron office in Carmarthen, then on to the Dwygyrwl (Llanelli), thence to the Cwron (Aberdare), and Seren Goron, so that ere long they will all be full of witches and their works.
"Reminiscences in Cymer."Sale by a Philadelphia Lawyer Which Would Puzzle One to Decide.This is an after dinner story told by a well known lawyer the other evening, illustrative of legal difficulties that may arise even in the carrying out of the most amicable contracts:There were once four brothers who had inherited a storage warehouse from their father and who equally divided the property among them. Among the apartments thereto was a cat, a fine animal, excellent for mousing, and this, too, was divided, the elder brother owning the right front quarter, the second brother the left front quarter and the younger brothers the two hind quarters.
Now, unfortunately, the cat in one of its nocturnal prowls injured the right front paw, and the elder brother attended to that portion of his property by binding the injured member with a gross rag. The cat, thankful for this relief to its suffering, went to sleep contentedly before the fire, but in the meantime its shambles a falling coal ignited the rag, and the animal, howling with agony, dashed through the warehouse, and, coming in contact with some combustibles, set the building on fire.When the loss came to be figured out, the three younger brothers wished to throw it all upon the elder, upon the ground that had no tied up his part of the cat with the inflammable rag the building would not have been destroyed.
He, on the contrary, contended that had the cat only been possessed of the front right paw—his property—it would have stood still and burned to death.
It was the three other paws that caused the damage. The brothers argued the case until they died but could never reach an agreement.—Philadelphia Rec.GREAT SALES prove the great
